

Management Job Opportunity
City of Wapato
Police Chief

The City of Wapato, Washington located in South Central Washington, is seeking applicants for a Police Chief. The Police Department provides service to a very diverse community of 5025 residents. This position is both an administrative and patrol position. It is a non-union, exempt position and serves at the direction and pleasure of the Mayor. Salary $5,000.00 per mo.

Minimum qualifications: A minimum of five years as a commissioned officer and at least three years supervisory experience in a Police Department supervising commissioned officers. Candidates must possess strong communication skills, both oral and in writing, ability to perform with minimum supervision and experience working with diverse populations. The City of Wapato strongly encourages bilingual English/Spanish Applicants

Duties: Provides direction and leadership to a force of fourteen (14) commissioned officers and six (6) correctional staff. Develop and implement, with community input, a citywide community-policing program. Plans, organizes and implements programs and policies to prevent criminal activities within the City limits. Responsible for planning, budget development, organizing and directing the Public Safety and Jail functions of the Police Department. The City of Wapato is an equal opportunity employer.

Open until filled. For complete application and more information see www.wapato-city.org. For more information contact: Jesse Farias, Mayor; City of Wapato 877-2334