MEMORANDUM

DATE: July 5, 2016
TO: Mayor Tony Guzman
CC: City Council
FROM: Menglou Wang, Public Works Director
SUBJECT: Public Works Department Report

9th Street Sidewalk – The project has been advertised for bid. The bid open date is July 7. Staff and G&O will examine the bids and ask Council to award the contract on July 18.

Trader Street and 2017 Arterial Preservation Project - The Trader Street project and pavement preservation for S. Camas Ave, 9th Street, and W. 1st Street project are both funded by TIB. These projects will be bid as one project. The project has been advertisement for bid and bid open date will be July 8. Staff and G&O will examine the bids and ask Council to award the contract on July 18.

North Wapato Lift Station – The environmental review has come to an end. Mayor Guzman has signed the CDBG fund request form. Once the form is approved by CDBG, we will issue a Notice to Proceed for Gray and Osborne to move forward with design.

TIB Grant Application – The TIB grant application is due at the end of August. The City will prepare an application with the assistance of Gray & Osborne. We will apply funding for paving 9th Street (S. Wasco Ave to Highway 97) and W. 1st Street (Wasco Ave to Ahtanum Ave).

YVCOG Newsletter – City staff has contributed two articles for the YVCOG newsletters for July. One article is about our Community Garden and the other is about the City's Energy Efficiency Grant. A copy of the newsletter is provided to each Council member.
